

Iris WANG

- Attorney-at-Law
- Trademark Attorney
- ✉ wangyi01@chinantd.com
- ☎ +86-10-63611666 - 1890
- ☎ +86-10-66211845
- 📍 Beijing

OVERVIEW

Iris Wang joined NTD in 2008 and started her profession in intellectual property, mainly focuses on the area of trademark, copyright, unfair competition and trade secret. During more than 10 years of her work with NTD, Iris assisted many famous enterprises at home and abroad in dealing with different intellectual property legal affairs including civil and administrative litigation related to trademark, anti-unfair competition, and copyright, intellectual property and commercial contracts review, intellectual property strategy consultation, corporate compliance governance, trademark assignment negotiation, copyright registration, administrative raid action and customs protection. In the process of providing legal services to the clients, Iris has accumulated a wealth of experience, and her good professional knowledge and meticulous services enable her to gain recognition from the clients.

---

EDUCATION AND TRAINING:

- Juris Master, University of International Business and Economics
- B.S. degree of English, Southwest University

---

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

- Deputy director of University-related Affairs Committee of Beijing Trademark Association
- Member of All China Lawyer Association

---

WORKING LANGUAGE

English, Mandarin

---

REPRESENTATIVE CASES:

- Representative of Beijing Huayue Education Technology Co., Ltd. in dealing with a criminal investigation of pirated books, successfully seized a large number of pirated books and arrested the criminal suspects. The case was supervised by national ministries and commissions;
- Representative of Safe Skies LLC. in handling an arbitration case with a company in Dongguan, and successfully won more than 1 million yuan of liquidated damages.
- Representative of a well-known Japanese artist Takashi Murakami in the copyright infringement case and successfully obtained the compensation about RMB 1 million through non-litigation methods including investigation and negotiation;
- Representative of a well-known domestic writer in a dispute over online infringement liability, achieving victory and successfully safeguarding the client's legitimate rights and interests.

- Represented a well-known domestic apparel enterprise in handling a large number of trademark acquisition, confirmation, and enforcement cases. For example, in six opposition cases filed by the rights holder against the enterprise's trademarks based on the cross-class protection of well-known trademarks, five of the six opposition cases were successfully won. Additionally, in responding to the client's fourth trademark examination opinion, the risk of the client's 45 trademark applications being deemed malicious registrations was successfully eliminated.
- Represented well-known domestic enterprises in trademark portfolio planning, handling disputes arising during the planning process, including reexamination, opposition, invalidation, and cancellation cases, and successfully eliminated the prior registration obstacles of the client's core category trademarks.
- Representative of Peking University in filing an invalidation against a maliciously registered trademark , after the trademark was successfully invalidated, forced the squatter settle with the client on the series of trademarks squatted.
- Representative of Ruibiao Enterprise Management (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. in a sales contract dispute with a well-known domestic e-commerce company , and successfully persuade the court to support our claim for triple compensation.